

FEAST OF THE PASSOVER OBSERVED BY HEBREWS

Celebration to Continue Eight Days,
Beginning This Evening—Program of Exercises.

The Jewish feast of Pesach, or the Passover, will begin this evening, and will be celebrated by Jews of the orthodox fold for eight days. The first two and the last two of this period only are regarded as holy days, and the intermediate days are not generally observed as of special significance.

Rev. Dr. Abram Simon will deliver a short address at the service in the Eighth Street Temple this evening at 6:30 o'clock, while half an hour later there will be public seder services for the children of the Sunday school.

"Elijah and Watchful Waiting" will be Dr. Simon's topic at the service tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, while Friday evening his topic will be "An Eye for an Eye."

The first service of the observance to be held in the Adas Israel Temple this evening, will begin at 7 o'clock. The next service, held at 8 o'clock, will be at 8:30 o'clock, while the third will be held tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock. Other services will be held Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock and that evening at 7 o'clock.

At the service this evening, Rabbi Grossman will preach on "Passover: Its True Significance." Cantor Shefferman and the choir will render the musical service.

Commemorates Deliverance.

The feast of Pesach, or the Passover, was instituted to commemorate the deliverance of the children of Israel from the bondage in which, for many generations, they had been held in Egypt, and their departure for the promised land of Canaan under the leadership of the Prophet Moses. This deliverance followed immediately upon the slaughter by the Angel of the Lord of the first-born of every Egyptian household, and was the result of this culminating disaster. Every Jewish household was ordered to sacrifice a lamb on the fatal night, the flesh to be eaten and the blood smeared on the lintel of the door, so that the destroying angel might recognize and "pass over" the dwellings of the faithful. The Jews, therefore, not only observed the feast, but also the deliverance of the Israelites to depart next day, but even left their articles necessary for their exodus.

The Passover is the first festival of the Jewish ecclesiastical year, beginning on the fourteenth day of the first month, which is designated as Nisan. It was one of the three great festivals at which, during the existence of the temple at Jerusalem, the Jewish people gathered at Jerusalem, coming from all the surrounding country and bringing their offerings to the temple.

During the continuance of the Passover festival all bread and all other leavened articles of food are banished from the home of the orthodox Jew. The use of such food is absolutely forbidden, and observant Jews will not permit any leaven of any description under their habitations during the Passover festival. The place of bread is taken by the matzo, or unleavened cakes, which are prepared for the purpose under strict rules and rigid supervision. They are made by Jewish bakers, in accordance with an ancient ritual and under the watchful care of orthodox rabbis, who see that the baking of the matzo is strictly complied with. Hence the Passover festival is known as the feast of unleavened bread.

Significance of Unleavened Bread.

The use of the matzo, or unleavened bread, has its origin in the haste with which the Israelites were compelled to take their departure from Egypt, the land of bondage. They were literally thrust out of Egypt, their former oppressors being so anxious to hurry their going that no time was given them to bake the bread necessary for the journey. Therefore they were compelled to eat such food as they had prepared before it was leavened and bake it while on their journey. The matzo is composed simply of flour and water, with no yeast or other leavening matter, and yet are quite palatable.

The first and second evenings of the festival—that is, this evening and tomorrow evening—what is known as the "Seder" service is observed in Jewish households. These are occasions for family gatherings, and the entire household meets about the table, even the household servants, if of the Jewish faith, being included.

The "Hagadah," an ancient compilation of the circumstances which gave origin to the Pesach festival, is read by the head of the household. The exodus of the Jews from Egypt is retold, and hymns of praise and thanksgiving to the Almighty for the deliverance of the children of Israel from slavery are chanted by the entire gathering.

KEY TO THE GOLDEN AGE.

Rev. Dr. Montgomery Points Out Futility of Laws and Theories.

"Nothing will permanently help mankind that introduces a disinclination for personal work or at all denies personal achievement," declared Rev. James S. Montgomery in his sermon last night at Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal Church. Rev. Dr. Montgomery said that while there is truth in socialism, as a system socialism is not true, apart from the democracy of Jesus. He asserted, however, that the world never will be saved by rule, rote or the clockwork of any church or any theory; nor will it ever come to anything like its highest state of advancement by the adoption of any of the almost countless nostrums of countless theorists.

The topic of the sermon was "The Key to the Golden Age."

"The world needs infinitely more today than the distant of the past," Rev. Dr. Montgomery said. "The golden age will never dawn upon man until he takes the key to the golden age. There is no legislation that can take a black heart out of a man's breast and put a pure one in its stead; there is no sort of theory or declaration by political party or church that can reconstruct the downward tendency of human nature."

Sir Robert Borden's Mother Dead.

HALIFAX, March 29.—Mrs. Andrew Borden, mother of Sir Robert Borden, premier of Canada, died early today at her home at Grandpre.

Backache?

The pain stops—your soreness and stiffness leaves. You are able to walk upright and vigorously after a few applications of

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

Penetrates right to the sore place and gives instant relief. James C. Lee, of Washington, D. C., writes: "I had a severe fall from a horse, and suffered with a severe pain in the back for thirty years. I heard of Sloan's Liniment and started to use it, and now am thankful to say that my back is entirely well."

At all dealers. Price 25c. 50c. & $1.00. Dr. Earl S. Sloan, Inc., Phila. & St. Louis.

BOYDS.

Special Correspondence of The Star.

BOYDS, Md., March 29.—Shippers of milk on this division of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad have been notified that beginning April 15 rates for shipments from Frederick to Washington over the Metropolitan branch and from Frederick to Baltimore over the main line will be advanced 10 per cent. The charge for shipping five-gallon cans from Boyds to Washington will be advanced from 10 to 11 cents, and the charge for ten gallons will be 21 cents instead of 20. Shippers claim that they have not been given sufficient time to protest against the increased rates before the interstate commerce commission. The increased railroad rates may result in the transporting of milk to Washington by automobile trucks, it is stated. Several plans for incorporating combined passenger and freight auto service have been suggested.

Roy Hargett, son of Albert Hargett, a farmer living near Germantown, is in a Washington hospital suffering from serious injuries as the result of having been kicked in the stomach by a horse. His condition is said to be critical. Smith Hoyle, a miller of this place, has acquired land along the Baltimore and Ohio tracks from James E. Williams and soon is expected to begin the erection of a flour mill, to cost about $7,500. The mill which Mr. Hoyle is now operating, about one mile from Boyds, has been operated by his family for more than a century.

Friday about thirty members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Boyds Presbyterian Church held their annual meeting at the home of Mrs. William T. Grimes. Mrs. Cora L. Pollock was elected president; Mrs. Stella Snyder, Mrs. James B. Maughlin was elected vice president; Miss Dorothy M. Hoyle, secretary, and Mrs. Lida Small, treasurer. The society decided to repaint the Presbyterian church here next month. Citizens of the town, following the example set by the society, propose to paint many of the residences in the town.

Pneumonia has been prevalent in the vicinity of Woodfield and Damascus, this county, and Ridgeville, Frederick county, just across the border, during the past two weeks. There have been ten deaths in ten days.

Miss Edith Totten of Washington, who has been traveling abroad for several years, will occupy Wunderbourne, her home here, this summer and early fall, moving here from Washington in June. Miss Totten is a daughter of the late Col. Enoch Totten and Mrs. Mary Howe Totten of Washington.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

MARSHALL A BUFFED.

Former Philly Pitcher Figures in Trade With Harry Moran.

NEW YORK, March 29.—Before leaving for Chicago late yesterday James A. Gilmore, president of the Federal League, announced that a trade had been arranged by the Newark and Buffalo clubs. Joe Marshall, a pitcher who came to Indianapolis last year and went to Newark with the former club, will join the Buffalo team, while Harry Moran, a pitcher, goes to Newark. While Gilmore would neither affirm nor deny it, it is understood that Joe Agler, first baseman, will come from Buffalo to Newark as part of the deal, which may involve another Newark player not yet named.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is understood, assured Stovall that he would be given stock in the reorganized club to an amount equal to that he originally held.

George Stovall, the Kansas City manager, indicated today his willingness to return to Kansas City. He accepted some stock in the Kansas City club as part payment last season, and when the club's difficulties he believed that his holdings were wiped out. However, Charles C. Madison of Kansas City, is